

legisway essentials Your smart legal dashboard

Every day more and more legal counsel are replacing the chaos of adhoc spreadsheets, shared drives and generic software with technology that drives efficiency and puts Legal at the center of strategic business decisions.

Are you ready to optimize legal operations with easy-to-use technology that is proven to make organizing your work and providing strategic legal counsel more efficient?

Designed specifically for corporate legal professionals, Legisway Essentials gives you the tools you need to:

- Manage your legal information including contracts, corporate records, compliance policies, regulations, cases and intellectual property in one place.
- Save time finding and summarising information.
- Boost efficiency and improve collaboration across the entire business while retaining full control over access rights.
- Manage risk and generate insightful reports, to protect the company and create value.

Legisway Essentials is easy to adopt and extend as your legal operations matures, ensuring that your entire organization is supported with standard processes and empowered to be legally and commercially savvy.

Transform your legal information from a burden into a strategic advantage.

Store - Organize the company's legal information and documents in a structured, central place, maintaining a "single source of truth".

Find - The most accurate information is always at your fingertips, whenever you need it.

Summarise - Make key information from long documents more visible and understandable to the whole organization.

Empower - Assign tasks and define who should do what, improving collaboration between departments, while maintaining control. Share - Give permission-based access to colleagues to help them do their jobs better, set documents as confidential and reduce the risk of a data breach.

Report - Proactively mitigate risk, identify opportunities and provide insightful reports to your CEO and Board.

Track - Check the status of your legal affairs and set alerts to help you manage your obligations and reduce risk. Never miss another deadline again.

Compliance... in action!

Are you confident your organization fully complies with local laws? Or is an expensive and time consuming compliance-related crisis lurking around the corner? To assist you with legal compliance, you need to have all of your policy and regulations in one place, where you can stay in control of compliance risk.
